POLICIES & PROCEDURES

External Policies

1. Physical Conditions in the School

It is the Policy of OSSTF, Teacher Bargaining Unit 28, Renfrew that the results of any investigations of the physical conditions in any school should be made available to the members who work in that school.

2. Redundancy

It is the Policy of OSSTF, Teacher Bargaining Unit 28, Renfrew that Members should cooperate as an indication of our sincere concern in the matter of redundancy by:

- 2.1 submitting a formal resignation within the shortest possible time of knowing that one will be not teaching with the Board the next year;
- 2.2 simultaneously informing Branch Presidents of such resignations with the object of providing the Redundancy Review Committee with regular assessment of the overall vacancy/redundancy situation on a County basis to aid them in the liaison with the Board and the Executive.

3. Tutorials

It is the Policy of OSSTF, Teacher Bargaining Unit 28, Renfrew that Teacher Bargaining Unit members who may be asked by the Board to offer tutorials for students taking correspondence courses through the Ministry of Education should accept only under the following condition: the night course-tutorial constitutes a portion of the teacher's timetable (the teacher would receive full salary according to the grid).

4. Job Duties

It is the Policy of OSSTF, Teacher Bargaining Unit 28, Renfrew that Teacher Bargaining Unit members should not change or expand their job duties so as to reduce the work available to members of our own or other bargaining units, nor should they use students or volunteers so as to reduce the work available to our own or other bargaining units.

Internal Policies

1. Committees

The Board has the right to appoint any individual to any committee it chooses but no OSSTF member serving on any committee should be regarded as a teachers' representative unless he or she is duly appointed by the Executive, Council, or Branch concerned with ratification by Council.

2. Public Elections

Branch Presidents in co-operation with the District Political Action Officer endeavour to mobilize the Branches to:

- 2.1 place ads where the Branch desires it for municipal and school board elections;
- 2.2 organize public meetings where the Branch approves for the municipal or school board elections;
- 2.3 organize a get-out-the-vote program for the elections where the Branch desires it.

3. Teacher Supervision

Teacher supervision at school dances and other extra-curricular activities is of a voluntary nature and full support will be given to any teacher against whom disciplinary actions are invoked on this account.

4. Teacher Qualifications

- 4.1 Any restrictions of teaching qualifications, which extend the existing Ministry Regulations, shall be opposed.
- 4.2 Any person whom the Board placed in charge of a secondary student's education, or part thereof, should be a qualified teacher under Ministry Regulations, should be a member of OSSTF, and should therefore be covered by all sections of the Collective Agreement.

5. Anti-Harassment

It shall be the policy of the TBU of District 28 that members should feel free to attend all meetings of the District without the fear of being harassed.

Procedures

1. Grievances

Before any official grievance is undertaken:

- 1.1 the member speaks with the Branch President or Bargaining Unit President concerning a complaint who will then inform a member of the Grievance Committee;
- 1.2 if the grievance involves the Principal, the member or his/her agent and the Branch President discuss any such complaint with the Principal to resolve the complaint. If the complaint is not resolved, procedures as outlined in the Collective Agreement for grievance may be undertaken.

2. Anti-Harassment Procedure

- 2.1 A member who believes that s/he has been the target of harassment, should, as a first step, inform the perpetrator that s/he finds the behaviour offensive, and ask that it be stopped. This can be done personally, either in writing or verbally, or with the assistance of a third party.
- 2.2 If the behaviour recurs or persists, or if the member does not feel safe approaching the perpetrator directly, s/he should speak with the designated anti-harassment officer or an executive member of the District. The designated anti-harassment officer will investigate the complaint promptly, including separately interviewing the parties involved and any witnesses, with a view to resolving the problem informally.
- 2.3 The investigation shall be handled confidentially; however, all complaints will be reported by the anti-harassment officer to the District President.
- 2.4 If the complaint cannot be resolved informally, the complainant will be asked to put the complaint and all relevant information in writing. If the complainant chooses to provide such a written complaint, it will be submitted to the District President for action and it

- shall be the joint responsibility of the District President and the Secretariat assigned to District 28 to conduct an investigation, determine if the behaviour falls under the definition of harassment, and decide on appropriate remedial action. The parties involved will receive a written report stating the findings and any action taken.
- 2.5 Resolutions may include but are not limited to apologies, mediation, warnings, temporarily limiting access, or removal/exclusion from the meeting or event. If the decision is made to remove or exclude that member, and where this member is representing a bargaining unit or district, a confidential letter outlining the reasons for this decision will be sent to the President of the District.
- 2.6 Decisions may be reviewed by Judicial Council on the request of a member.
- 2.7 The District President shall keep a confidential file of all records and reports related to the investigation of written complaints for a period of five years.
- 2.8 None of the above restricts a member's right to file a complaint with the Ontario Human Rights Commission or to make a complaint to the police.

3. Anti-Harassment Appeals Procedure

Members of the TBU affected by a decision resulting from a complaint under the TBU's Anti-Harassment Policy & Procedure may appeal this decision using the following procedure:

- 3.1 Within five days of the decision, the affected member (herein called the Appellant) shall submit a request in writing to the TBU President for an Appeal Hearing.
- 3.2 Within two days of receiving the request, the TBU President shall appoint three members of the TBU Executive to act as the Anti-Harassment Appeals Committee (herein called the Committee) and to consider the appeal.
- 3.3 Within three days, the Committee shall meet to consider the appeal.
- 3.4 The Committee shall review the complaint, the investigation process and findings, and the decision.
- 3.5 Following the review, the Committee shall either confirm or modify the decision.
- 3.6 The decision of the Committee shall be consistent with the TBU Anti-Harassment Policy & Procedures.
- 3.7 The Committee shall report the decision on the Appeal to the TBU President within five (5) days after meeting at which the Appeal is considered.
- 3.8 Within two days of receiving the decision of the Committee, the TBU President shall communicate the decision to the Appellant in writing.
- 3.9 The decision of the Committee shall be considered final and not subject to any appeal.
